

RANDOM LAKE HIGH SCHOOL DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARD

Purpose and Background

The Distinguished Alumni Award provides an opportunity for former Random Lake High School students to be recognized for their achievements beyond graduation. Nominees must meet the following criteria:

- The nominee is a graduate of Random Lake High School.
- At least 10 years have passed since the nominee graduated from Random Lake High School.
- The nominee has made a significant achievement in his or her career and noteworthy contributions to society on a local, regional, national, or international level.

The Distinguished Alumni Award was established in 2016 to honor the accomplishments of Random Lake High School graduates who have distinguished themselves as role models, individuals who excel in their professions, or who have made significant contributions to their communities. Distinguished Alumni Award recipients also have displayed the characteristics of commitment, effort, leadership, pride and respect. The recognition of graduates who have displayed these character traits will provide current students with positive role models for their own lives.
